American Cruise Lines Takes Off Now Offering Domestic Air for All U.S. Cruises

Guilford, CT— January 13, 2022—American Cruise Lines, the country’s largest small ship cruise line, is pleased to announce it has added a new flat rate domestic airfare option for all its U.S. cruises. The flat rate pricing includes domestic air service to each of the Line’s 19 major cruise hubs in 16 states. American Cruise Lines is committed to providing the most comprehensive and convenient travel experience possible for their guests across the country.

American’s small ship fleet has doubled in size in the past 5 years and now includes explorations in 31 states from Alaska to Florida. Each year, the Line continues to build new small ships right here in the U.S.A and expand its offerings on land, air, and sea. In addition to complimentary pre-cruise hotel stays available for all their U.S. river cruises, American has recently added over 50 new shore excursions, private cruise coaches which follow the riverboats, and land packages, including luxury options at Four Seasons hotels.

“Our new flat rate airfare is an added convenience when booking small ship cruises with us. As a company, we are always looking for new ways to personalize our guest services from booking to boarding and the new flat rate airfare will create a seamless experience for many of our guests,” said Carter Robertson, Executive Vice President for American Cruise Lines.

Guests aboard American’s 100-190 passenger ships explore close-to-home along 100% U.S. itineraries which highlight the country’s scenic beauty, history, and wonderful small towns. The new flat rate airfare option can be selected at the time of cruise booking and is not subject to future changes in fares. American Cruise Lines’ new season begins in late February and continues through December 2022.

About American Cruise Lines:

American Cruise Lines offers river cruising and small ship coastal cruising in the U.S.A.
